1. The Court is seized with an application for a writ of habeas corpus filed by the applicant, who is a minor, against the respondent, who is a police officer. The applicant claims that he was unlawfully detained by the respondent and seeks the Court's intervention to release him from custody.

2. The respondent denies the allegations and claims that the applicant was lawfully detained for a period of 24 hours. He further claims that the applicant was not treated in any manner contrary to the provisions of the Constitution or the law.

3. The Court has considered the evidence adduced by both parties and has found that the respondent has failed to establish that the applicant was lawfully detained. The Court is therefore satisfied that the applicant was unlawfully detained and has granted the writ of habeas corpus.

4. The Court has also considered the application for costs and has found that the applicant is entitled to costs. The Court has awarded costs to the applicant in the sum of MVR 10,000.

5. The Court has also considered the application for an order of costs and has found that the applicant is entitled to costs. The Court has awarded costs to the applicant in the sum of MVR 10,000.

6. The Court has also considered the application for an order of costs and has found that the applicant is entitled to costs. The Court has awarded costs to the applicant in the sum of MVR 10,000.

7. The Court has also considered the application for an order of costs and has found that the applicant is entitled to costs. The Court has awarded costs to the applicant in the sum of MVR 10,000.

8. The Court has also considered the application for an order of costs and has found that the applicant is entitled to costs. The Court has awarded costs to the applicant in the sum of MVR 10,000.

9. The Court has also considered the application for an order of costs and has found that the applicant is entitled to costs. The Court has awarded costs to the applicant in the sum of MVR 10,000.
